OPENING SERVICE

HYMN

Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplex'd,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven
The One Eternal God,
Whom earth and Heav'n adore
For thus it was, is now
And shall be evermore.

OPENING SERVICE

HYMN

Father, hear the prayer we offer;
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.

Not for ever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be;
But the steep and rugged pathway
May we tread rejoicingly.

Not for ever by still waters
Would we idly rest and stay;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.

Be our Strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings be our Guide;
Through endeavour, failure, danger,
Father, be Thou at our side.

OPENING SERVICE

A FOREWORD

Willy Jones is just an ordinary lad, with plenty of life and spirits. Shortly before our story opens he has been introduced to the B.B.

He finds many new interests there and longs to take part in all of them, but has to learn that for some he must wait.

We shall not see him rise to any dizzy heights of promotion or performance, although we shall see him enjoying all his new friends and activities; also learning - perhaps unconsciously - that in the clean atmosphere of the B.B., life takes on a new meaning.

As we follow Willy's story we shall find that much is given to him, much is asked of him.

But first of all we must meet

1. WILLY AND HIS FAMILY
 2. WILLY LEARNS TEAM SPIRIT AND SELF-CONTROL
 3. "I'M GOING TO BE ONE OF THOSE!"

OPENING SERVICE

A FOREWORD

It is always a rather sad time when we have to bid farewell to one of our Seniors as he leaves us to join one of the Services. They miss our activities, our friendship, our fellowship. We miss their ability, their steadiness, their Christian character.

Following a long line of stalwarts we have, only too recently, had to say "God-speed!" to Ken Hill, Brian Flint, Fred Munro, George Parsons, all now members of the Services. Yet we feel proud of the spirit and integrity with which these young men are imbued. They will do credit to their parents and to their friends.

Tonight we say our farewells to yet another - Ted Brown - but are happy in that we are, this evening, privileged to follow him for a time in his life as an A.C.2. in the R.A.F. May his B.B. training stand him in good stead as he enters into the wider and more difficult Service life!

To our fathers in distress,
Praise Him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless.

Angels, in the height, adore Him,
Ye behold Him face to face,
Sun and moon, bow down before Him,
Dwellers all in time and space.

Praise with us the Gbd of grace.

H·M·N

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great Name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might,
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above,
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life Thou givest, to both great and small,
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all,
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish, but nought changeth Thee.

Great Father of Glory, pure Father of Light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight,
All laud we would render, O help us to see,
'Tis only the splendour of light hideth Thee.

HYMN

1. God has given us a Book full of stories,
Which was made for His people of old ;
It begins with the tale of a garden,
And ends with the city of gold.
2. But the best is the story of Jesus,
Of the Babe with the ox in the stall ;
Of the song that was sung by the angels,
The most beautiful story of all.
3. There are stories for parents and children,
For the old who are ready to rest ;
But for all who can read them or listen,
The story of Jesus is best.
4. For it tells how he came from the Father,
His far away children to call ;
To bring the lost sheep to their Shepherd,
The most beautiful story of all.

Lord! in the fulness of my might,

While runneth o'er each dear delight

I would not give the world my heart,
And then profess Thy love,
I would not feel my strength depart,
And then Thy service prove.

I would not with swift-winged zeal
On the world's errands go,
And labour up the heavenly hill
With weary feet and slow.

O, choose me in my golden time!
In my dear joys have part!
For Thee the glory of my prime -
