WELCOME AND THANKS

On behalf of the Sandwell Battalion of the Boys' Brigade, I congratulate the eight companies who have reached the Finals of the 1987/88 session's National Table Tennis Competition, and welcome their Officers, lads and supporters to West Bromwich.

This is the first time in the history of the Sandwell Battalion that we have hosted the Finals of a National Competition, and we hope that you enjoy our hospitality, and the time that you spend with us.

For some of the Company's, it is their first time in this Final, others have taken part in it before. We wish all the Company's and their supporters the very best of luck.

To the supporters, we hope that you enjoy not only some good table tennis, but also the BB fellowship which is always to be found when Boys' Brigade members meet together.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those who have helped to make these Finals possible by their sponsorship, both financial and otherwise.

Also thanks must be extended to the small group of Officers from the Sandwell Battalion, who have assisted me in organising today's Finals, and thereby, hopefully, making it a very successful day.

Ian P. Collett
